President's Report & Chapter Operations - Link Dianne Young

Updates from National/Area/Cluster

- Link Dianne attended National's 70th Anniversary in Philadelphia on November 12, 2016. The day consisted of two panels and a Founder's Day Ceremony. The first panel was a panel of millennials which included speakers from Kaiser Permanente, MSNBC, IMPACT Strategies, the Detroit Tigers, CNN, and Bernie Sander's Campaign Manager. They had fresh new perspectives they shared with the audience. They talked about the need to show respect for each other during the meetings. Also the need to accommodate the schedules of young mothers who are members. They talked about the importance of not normalizing what was done during the campaign by the president elect; however, we need to move forward. The moderator of the second panel was Link Glenda Newell-Harris and included six past presidents: Links Dolly Desselle Adams, Gwendolyn Byrd Lee, Margo James Copeland, Regina Jollivette Frazier, Patricia Russell-McCloud and Gladys Gary Vaughn. They shared their experiences while they were president and on the road to the presidency. The majority of the past presidents talked about the importance of being prepared. Each shared their best and worst moments during their presidency. The day ended with the Founder's Day ceremony. Link Dianne thanked Link Jennifer for attending.

- Recognized Link Joyce who attended in her capacity as National Program Chair. Human trafficking is a new initiative. As an organization, we donated $5,000 to support a secret location. 60% of women in Philadelphia area who are heroine addicts are more likely to try to escape. The center is sponsored by the Salvation Army. The pimps go right up to the door to get the women to work for them. The staff gets males to sit in the clinic to provide women with safe passage into the clinic. A plaque and $5,000 check were presented. The Links toured the site.
- The Leadership Summit was held in Norfolk, Virginia in October. A lot of information was disseminated at the Summit. The Cluster will bring selected topics to the Cluster meeting. A key topic is financials. The Area Treasurer and Financial Secretary will come to New York to explain the changes. It will probably be held during a weekend in January.
- Alvin Ailey sold out; however, Link Dianne is going to try to get additional tickets. There will be a post performance reception.
- Greater Bronx is sponsoring Go Red on February 12, 2017 in the Bronx.
- The Area Conference will be held April 21-25, 2017 in Richmond, Virginia. We have 2 or 3 members who should attend if they haven't met their 1 in 5 requirement. If 2017 is your 5th year, members should register immediately right when registration is open because it will sell out quickly. Please let Link Dianne know if you are planning to attend.

The theater charges $8.70 per ticket. Anything above that is profit for the Chapter. We must purchase from their concession stands because they won't allow us to bring in outside food. They are considering purchasing coffee in order to make it available for the attendees. Our Chapter would be responsible for sharing the cost of the coffee. The theater holds 200 people. If we sell more tickets they will open another theater. It will be held at the Greenberg Multiplex at 320 Saw Mill River Road in Elmsford.
