Happy New Year My beloved Sister Links

As we start a new year I am reminded of how far we have come and how blessed we are as women entering into 2018

Although, we have already mourned the loss of loved ones in our Links family, we know that while weeping may endure for a night, joy comes in the mourning. Let us hold fast to each other and be in continual prayer for one another. For we are our sisters keepers.

In our world we are hearing more and more about bullying and sexual harassment and indifference to diversity. We as black women can no longer sit on the sidelines and watch, we must be Women of Excellence Continuing the Legacy of Friendship and Service and help to be positive game changers in our community. Let us together inspire and educate our youth and continue to make a difference in Westchester County.

We should think about our National Initiatives and about how we may best further implement them into our current program year; Anti bullying campaign, Mental Health Initiative to name a few. We along with our partners need to arm our youth with a strong positive foundation that will enable them to further develop a positive self-esteem, equip them with tools to make better choices when faced with "life changing" situations. We must continue to be change agents to our Westchester community educating families, women, children and men.

"I shall earnestly endeavor to uphold these standards and do my share toward serving my community and my chapter to the best of my ability"
