Primary Issues discussed were preparation and coordination for the College Panel featuring returning Young Achiever alumni. This is the first time STY has implemented this panel. This workshop is being held early January 2016 in order to optimize the participation of YA alumni.
The holiday festivities for the YA's will also take place as a component of the College Panel.
STY members took various responsibilities and Link Joyce Turnipseed, the Links National HBCU officer took responsibility for identifying the moderator/presenter to provide background data to the YA's and to insure that critical questions are raised and answered. Parents were specifically invited to attend the workshop and enjoy the festivities.

NRHS will be the interface with the alumni following consultation with STY

STY will develop flyer

STY will order food

Reminders will be sent to students upon their return from Christmas break.

YA shirts will be gift wrapped and presented to the YA's STY also voted to attend Westchester Knick game on March 3, 2013. The February 17th date is during the NRHS Mid-Winter Break. Therefore too difficult to arrange logistics when school is not in session. Bettye Perkins facilitated gratis tickets and discussion with Knick personnel.

30 Young Achievers attended the November, 18, 2015 Dress for Success Workshop Macy's and Lord and Taylor representatives instructed the YA's on appropriate attire for business, business casual and casual occasions. Lord and Taylor also provided gifts for the YA's.
