MARCH 9,

Links Joyce Turnipseed and Karen Hill planned the Career Choices Panel. Link Joyce moderated. The conclusion of the For Men Only of the prior month focusing on healthy male social behavior preceded the career workshop. Dr. Enrique Riggs, Dentist; Frank Williams, Executive Director White Plains Youth Bureau; Hon. Eddie McShan, New York State Supreme Court and Andre Early, Interim Commissioner, Theodore Young Community Center generously agreed to lead this discussion as well as the career presentation. The enthusiasm of the Young Achievers to discuss very personal matters cannot be overstated and additional time was allocated. Judge Martin introduced her former mentee, now her peer, Judge McShan. The value of mentorship and staying connected to those who enrich your life was imparted to the YA's

The Career Choices Panel was diverse with maximum interest and questions from the YA's as the panelist shared unique sometimes unexpected life and career changes. Preparation for the rigors of academic life and taking advantage of all opportunities was a recurring theme. Also there was a vigorous discussion of opportunities offered through HBCU's with Links and Connecting Links weighing in to a lively discussion.
